ACTIVITIES

THE DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club, under the direction of Mr. K. Wayne Grubb, has the following officers: President, Clayton Beck; Vice-President, Louise Davis; Secretary-Treasurer, Geraldine Poole; Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, Arlene Barrier.

This club, conducted according to parliamentary procedure, gives each member the chance to express himself in debates, plays, recitations, etc.

The highlight of the year's work will be a Recitation-Declamation Contest to determine medal winners.

THE GLEE CLUB

Our Glee Club is a "product" of Miss Alma Jarratt, the music teacher. She has so willingly worked with our "untrained" voices. We have given two special programs.

THE GAMES CLUB

The chief aim of the Games Club is the social development of the pupil.

Both indoor and outdoor games are studied. Many indoor games are played, thus giving the pupils an opportunity to work harmoniously and co-operatively under supervised leadership.

THE NEEDLECRAFT CLUB

Needles of various kinds have clicked to the tune of doilies, towels, buffet sets, napkins, tablecloths, baby sets, "cup -and - saucers," etc. in our "sewing club." We plan to have an exhibition of our handiwork.

Our officers are: President, Betty Jo Crowell; Vice-President, Willie Mae Wilson; Secretary-Treasurer, Kathleen Koontz; Instructor, Mrs. C. R. Darr.

BASKETBALL

We have had a rather successful basketball season under the coaching of Mr. C. R. Darr. Our boys won thirteen games, lost seven; our girls won seven, tied two, lost eleven.

Glenn Wilson was chosen as one of the ten boys making the All-Tournament-Team for the county.

Our very active cheerleaders were Bobby Greene, Carol Hanes, Lois Wilson and Willie Mae Wilson.
